

Australians At War

This is just a co-incidental note. In 2003 I was one of 2,000 ex servicemen contacted by DVA to record for posterity life memories. In my filing cabinet second drawer down 5th file along is an envelope with the title above hand written on it. The contents will explain what it is all about.

In my second down desk drawer left hand side you will see 4 DVDs held together with elastic bands. These are the video and vocal recordings of the interviews. At some far distant date when one of your grandchildren asks the question,
